Subject (in full) Article entitled "Immoral doings on Yuhang Road" appearing in the Shanghai Nippo of October 28, 1930.

Made by and Forwarded by D.S.I. Moore.

Sir,

I beg to report, with reference to the article entitled
"Immoral doings on Yuhang Road" appearing in the Shanghai Nippo of October 28, 1930, (translation attached), that C.D.I. Nakagawa saw the Magistrate of the Japanese Court re. the article in question, who stated that there was insufficient grounds to take action against the Shanghai Nippo, and also that the paper was of no consequence and not worth serious attention.

Immoral doings on Yuhang Road

The Shanghai Nippo publishes the following :

At about 2 a.m. two or three days ago the inmates of a Chinese house at No. 3960 Yuhang Road heard knocking at the back door. They opened a window on the first floor and saw a woman dressed in Japanese clothes in sexual intercourse with a man dressed in European clothes. During the act their feet came against the door but they did not notice this because of the sexual excitement.

S 5 (J. I. Moore),

Please ascertain with the assistance of the C. D. I. Kobagawa, Japanese Law on the subject of indecent publications, and obtain the opinion of the Legal Department on the advisability of prosecuting the editor of the paper.
